

EXHIBIT 36

Parental Tool for Opting Children Out of Sponsored Stories

Working, Non-Final Mockup (for Illustrative Purposes Only)

First screen shown to parents:

[Mock] Request the removal of your child's name & profile picture from being paired with social ads & sponsored stories

Please verify that you're a parent or guardian to get help changing your child's setting for pairing their name and profile photo with ads & sponsored stories.

Do you have a Facebook account?

Yes

No

Send

If the parent clicks "No":

[Mock] Request the removal of your child's name & profile picture from being paired with social ads & sponsored stories

Please verify that you're a parent or guardian to get help changing your child's setting for pairing their name and profile photo with ads & sponsored stories.

Do you have a Facebook account?

Yes

No

Your name

Your child's name

Link (URL) to your child's timeline

https://www.facebook.com/...

Please attach a copy of a notarized statement declaring your rights as a parent or guardian

Upload

If you don't submit this statement, or we find it to be insufficient, we won't be able to process your request.

Send

If the parent clicks “Yes” and has a verified parent/child relationship:

[Mock] Request the removal of your child's name & profile picture from being paired with social ads & sponsored stories (logged in)

Please verify that you're a parent or guardian to get help changing your child's setting for pairing their name and profile photo with ads & sponsored stories.

Your name

Employee Only · Request Content Change · Edit this

There are [x] verified child relationships on your timeline. Which account do you want to opt out of social ads and sponsored stories?

- Mary Smith [ ]
- Daniel Smith [ ]

Employee Only · Request Content Change · Edit this

If you have a verified relationship with your child on Facebook but their account isn't appearing in the list above, it may be because the age they provided for their account is over 18. Please talk to your child to resolve the issue.

If you're unable to complete the online request process described above, you can submit a separate request.

Send

If the parent clicks "Yes" and does not have a verified parent/child relationship:

[Mock] Request the removal of your child's name & profile picture from being paired with social ads & sponsored stories (logged in)

Please verify that you're a parent or guardian to get help changing your child's setting for pairing their name and profile photo with ads & sponsored stories.

Your name

Employee Only · Request Content Change · Edit this

There are currently no verified child relationships on your timeline. To establish this relationship on your timeline, please follow these directions. Then, resubmit this form.

Employee Only · Request Content Change · Edit this

If you have a verified relationship with your child on Facebook but their account isn't appearing in the list above, it may be because the age they provided for their account is over 18. Please talk to your child to resolve the issue.

If you're unable to complete the online request process described above, you can submit a separate request.

Send