DECLARATION OF MICHAEL G. RHODES IN SUPPORT OF JOINT MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF REVISED SETTLEMENT

DATE: October 25, 2012
TIME: 1:30 p.m.
JUDGE: Hon. Richard Seeborg
COURTROOM: 3

1 I, Michael G. Rhodes, declare:

2 1. I am a partner with the law firm of Cooley LLP (“Cooley”), attorneys of record in
3 this matter for Defendant Facebook, Inc. (“Facebook”). I have personal knowledge of the facts
4 set forth herein, and if called upon to testify, I could and would testify competently thereto.

5 2. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of my biography as posted
6 on Cooley’s website, available at www.cooley.com. Attached hereto as Exhibit B and Exhibit
7 C, respectively, are the biographies of Matthew D. Brown and Jeffrey M. Gutkin, partners at 8 Cooley who also represent Facebook in this matter.

9 3. Cooley maintains a Commercial Class Action Litigation practice, which has in-
10 depth experience representing companies across a wide array of industries in various types of 11 commercial class actions. Members of this practice group, including myself, Mr. Brown and Mr.
12 Gutkin, have litigated matters involving consumer protection, copyright, Internet transactions and 13 payment processing, internet advertising and privacy issues. A true and correct copy of the 14 Cooley website page featuring the Commercial Class Action Litigation practice is attached hereto
15 as Exhibit D.

16 Mediation

17 4. On March 1, 2012, I, along with Robert Arns, counsel for Plaintiffs in this matter,
18 participated in an all-day mediation session at JAMS in San Francisco, California, before the 19 Honorable Edward A. Infante (Ret.), a former Chief Magistrate Judge of the U.S. District Court,
20 Northern District of California, who has more than 30 years of dispute resolution experience. A
21 true and correct copy of the biography of Judge Infante, as set forth on the JAMS website,
22 available at www.jamsadr.com, is attached hereto as Exhibit E. Although this mediation
23 provided a constructive forum for settlement discussions before a highly skilled and experienced
24 mediator, the Parties were unable to reach a settlement.

25 Negotiations

26 5. Following the mediation before Judge Infante, the Parties continued to engage in 27 negotiations. Judge Infante supervised these settlement discussions. Ultimately, the Parties
28 arrived at an outline of a settlement agreement.

6. The Parties' initial settlement agreement was brought to the Court's attention as part of Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, dated June 14, 2012, (See ECF Nos. 176 (associated motion to seal); 184-1 (publicly filed settlement agreement).

7. Following the Court's Order Denying Motion for Preliminary Approval of Settlement Agreement, Without Prejudice, dated August 17, 2012, ECF No. 224, the Parties have engaged in further negotiations that have resulted in the revised Settlement Agreement the Parties have provided to the Court as part of their Joint Motion for Preliminary Approval of Revised Settlement.

I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on October 5, 2012 in San Francisco, California.

Michael Rhodes, Partner

Michael G. Rhodes is a litigation partner in the Cooley San Francisco and San Diego offices. Mr. Rhodes is Chair of the Firm's national Litigation Department. He has served on the Firm's Management Committee since 2004.

Mr. Rhodes represents technology and Internet companies in matters involving patents, copyrights, trade secrets, and trademarks for clients such as eBay, Nintendo, Facebook, Google, NVIDIA, HortonWorks, Wikimedia Foundation, Mutual Pharmaceuticals, Shoe Dazzle and LinkedIn. He is co-chair of the Firm's Internet practice and speaks publicly on matters ranging from social media law to the Communications Decency Act Section 230 safe harbor for interactive web companies. E.g., Gentry v. eBay (2002) 99 Cal.App.4th 816.

Mr. Rhodes also has a leading privacy practice, currently handling multiple privacy class actions for Facebook, Google, Time, Conde' Nast, Soundbite, The Weather Channel, LinkedIn, Sony, Living Social, HTC, Provide Commerce, Clearspring and Medialets. He also has an extensive class action practice outside the privacy area, involving ecommerce, Internet advertising, copyrights, consumer rights, online payment processing, the California Auction Act, the California Credit Card Act and RICO.

Mr. Rhodes also represents venture capital funds in all manner of disputes and litigation, serving as the Chair of the Firm's Venture Capital Litigation practice group and frequently speaking at venture capital trade groups on litigation trends affecting the industry.

The following are some of his recent matters:

- IP Litigation: successfully tried Facebook's first jury trial, Leader v. Facebook (D. Del), receiving a jury verdict invalidating the patent-in-suit.
- Investment Litigation: led the successful trial team on behalf of eBay in the eBay v. craigslist case in which Chancellor William B. Chandler, III of the Delaware Court of Chancery found that craigslist directors Jim Buckmaster and Craig Newmark "breached their fiduciary duties" to eBay by implementing provisions (including a poison pill) aimed at diluting eBay's stake to 24.9% from 28.4%, and hindering its ability to sell that stake to a third party (C.A. No. 3705-CC, September 9, 2010.).

- Shareholder Litigation: represented eBay in an earlier Delaware Court of Chancery case involving corporate governance. In re eBay Inc. Shareholders Litigation, 2004 WL 253521 (Court of Chancery of Delaware 2004).
- Privacy Litigation: lead counsel for Facebook in the Facebook-Beacon privacy class action settlement approved by the federal district court in Spring 2010, which drew extensive national media coverage.
- Venture Capital Litigation: led a team which secured the dismissal of a suit against Softbank Asia Investment Funds for the alleged wrongful expulsion of one of its claimed partners.

In 2011 and 2012, Mr. Rhodes was named to the list of the Top 100 Lawyers in California by The Daily Journal. In 2010, Mr. Rhodes was one of 16 lawyers named as an attorney of the year by The Recorder for high-profile achievements in court. He was also recognized individually, among others in Cooley's litigation department, in Benchmark Litigation Legal Guide as a Litigation Star, which noted that Cooley litigators "were incredibly strong and provided very insightful guidance." From 2007-2012, he has been named to the Best Lawyers in America in the categories of Technology Law and Derivative Litigation for Los Angeles and San Diego and named to the San Diego Super Lawyers list in the category of Business Litigation.

Matthew D. Brown, Partner

Matthew D. Brown is a partner in the Cooley Litigation Department and works in the San Francisco office. He has been with the Firm since 1998.

Mr. Brown's practice includes complex contract and commercial disputes, intellectual property, Internet-related issues, and white-collar criminal defense.

He represents clients in a wide array of cases in state and federal courts across the country, as well as in alternative dispute resolution (ADR) proceedings. Mr. Brown has substantial trial experience, having been involved in ten trials to date, including five as sole trial counsel and three as second-chair trial counsel. He also has substantial experience briefing and arguing cases in the appellate courts.

Mr. Brown also provides counseling to companies that are seeking to assess and to manage potential liability risks. For example, he has advised companies developing new digital and web-based products and services, including those that allow for distribution of user-generated content, on managing the risk of copyright liability. He has also advised Web 2.0 companies on appropriate responses to subpoenas and other requests for disclosure of user information and content. Additionally, he has advised companies on available options and strategies when company-related information or potentially defamatory commentary appears on blogs, message boards, or other websites.

In 2006, as part of a Firm-sponsored program, Mr. Brown served as an Assistant District Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco, prosecuting criminal cases such as sexual battery, child endangerment, burglary, carrying a concealed weapon, battery, hit-and-run, and driving under the influence.

In 2009, Mr. Brown was elected to The American Law Institute (ALI).

Mr. Brown received a JD, cum laude, from Harvard Law School in 1998. He received an AB from Cornell University, College of Arts and Sciences, in 1992 with a major in Philosophy and concentration in Government. He graduated with distinction and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Jeff Gutkin, Partner

Jeff Gutkin is a partner in the Cooley Litigation department. He joined the Firm in 2000 and is resident in the San Francisco office.

Mr. Gutkin's practice focuses on class action defense, internet privacy litigation, antitrust litigation, and other complex business litigation matters. As a member of the Firm's Commercial Class Action group, Mr. Gutkin has defended clients in a broad variety of class actions and complex multi-district litigations. These matters have spanned numerous industries (social networking, computer graphics, online advertising, medical devices) and been litigated on behalf of numerous, multi-national corporations, including Facebook, Inc., NVIDIA Corporation, and Covidien Inc. (formerly Tyco Healthcare).

In addition to Mr. Gutkin's work on class actions, he also recently represented NVIDIA Corporation in a multi-year licensing dispute with Intel Corporation in the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Shortly after joining the Firm, Mr. Gutkin took a leave to serve as a law clerk to the Honorable Samuel Conti, Federal District Court Judge for the Northern District of California. Mr. Gutkin served part of his clerkship in New York City, while Judge Conti sat by designation on the Federal District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Mr. Gutkin received a JD from the University of Michigan Law School where he was elected to the Order of the Coif upon graduation. Mr. Gutkin received a BA, magna cum laude, from Brandeis University in 1995 where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He majored in Political Science, with a minor in Creative Writing.

Commercial Class Action Litigation

The prevalence of commercial class actions (those not involving securities violations) has dramatically increased over the past several years and has become a growing threat to many businesses. The stakes are high and potential exposure is significant, particularly in cases with potentially large classes of plaintiffs.

Cooley's Commercial Class Action Litigation practice has in-depth experience representing companies, across a wide array of industries, in various types of commercial class actions. In both state and federal courts, including the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (MDL Panel), members of our Commercial Class Action Litigation group have litigated matters involving consumer protection, fraud, wage and hour, RICO, healthcare, finance and banking, copyright, products liability, Internet transactions and payment processing, privacy, antitrust, mass torts and statutory violations.

Our practitioners are very experienced in class certification procedures, the negotiation and creative structuring of class action settlements and, when necessary, trial of these class actions. In multi-district class action litigation, we have successfully moved to transfer commercial class actions pending in district courts around the country to a single district court for coordinated or consolidated proceedings and have served as lead counsel after transfer.

The members of Cooley's Commercial Class Action Litigation practice work closely with our clients to obtain favorable resolutions as early and as efficiently as possible under the circumstances of each unique case, whether by obtaining pre-certification or post-certification dismissals, defeating class certification motions, negotiating favorable settlements before or after class certification or litigating cases through trial and appeal.

Recent representations include:

- Defending numerous consumer fraud and financial class actions for E*TRADE FINANCIAL Corporation and its subsidiaries, including obtaining dismissals and defeating class certification motions in cases that alleged violation of the Truth-in-Lending Act and California's consumer protection statute (Business & Professions Code section 17200).
- On behalf of Nvidia Corporation, defeating certification of nationwide classes of indirect and direct purchasers in multi-district antitrust litigation involving federal and state price-fixing and consumer claims for computer graphics processing units (GPUs).
- In multi-district class action litigation seeking billions in damages, winning a complete victory on summary judgment for PacifiCare HealthSystems in HMO class action where most other defendants paid billions of dollars to settle. In the course of the litigation, also achieved unanimous victory in United States Supreme Court.
- Handling more than a dozen class actions for eBay and its subsidiaries involving state auction laws, consumer fraud and protection statutes, online payment processing and ticket re-sales.
- Defending over 25 different California Song Beverly Credit Card Act and federal Fair and Accurate Credit Transaction Act ("FACTA") class actions for retailers and online businesses arising from credit card transactions, including the defeating of class certification for StubHub, Inc., an eBay company, in an action brought under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) for the alleged violation of FACTA, which was the first such action filed against an online business.

- On behalf of Mayer Roofing, Inc., defeating class certification in two union-sponsored actions asserting overtime and meal and rest period violations in an action involving thousands of employees.
- Obtaining a major victory for our client The TJX Companies, Inc. (T.J. Maxx and Marshalls stores) and retailers doing business in California in a published appellate decision in a class action brought under California Civil Code section 1747.08 of the Song Beverly Credit Card Act, which limited the statute's reach to purchase transactions and a one-year limitations period. (TJX Companies, Inc. v. Superior Court (2008) 163 Cal.App.4th 80)
- Obtaining dismissal for Covidien at the pleading stage of all federal and state claims in an antitrust class action relating to sales of medical devices across the nation.
